We are committed to Safeguarding Customer Information

In order to better serve your needs now and in the future, we may ask you to provide us with certain information. We understand that you may be concerned about what we will do with such information, particularly any personal or financial information. You have a right to know how we will utilize the personal information you provide to us. Therefore, we have adopted this Privacy Policy to govern the use and handling of your personal information.

Information that identifies an individual personally and is not otherwise publically available information, such as your Social Security Number or demographic data such as your race and ethnicity is considered nonpublic data. Other information that you provide about you and your household is considered private data and is protected.

- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency; and
- Information we receive from your creditors or employment references.

Use of Information

We request information from you for legitimate business purposes and not for the benefit of any nonaffiliated party. Therefore, we will not release your information to any other party except: (1) as necessary for us to provide the product or service you have requested of us; or (2) as permitted by law. We may, however, store such information indefinitely, including the period after which any customer relationship has ceased. We may provide all of the types of nonpublic personal information listed above to one or more of our member agencies. Such member agencies include, but are not limited to, other non-profit housing service providers, such as community

We may share anonymous, aggregated case file information; but this information may not be disclosed in a manner that would personally identify you in any way. This is done in order to evaluate our program, gather valuable research information, and/or design future programs. We may disclose personal information about you to third parties as permitted by law. We do not sell or rent your information to any outside entity.

How is Your Personal Information Secured?

We restrict access to your nonpublic personal information to Southwest Minnesota Housing Partnership employees who need to know that information in order to perform their duties.
